

There are two photos in front of me. (My task is to compare and contrast them). They show people at work/ on holiday/ doing healthy activities/ playing music/spending their free time / different ways of shopping/ _____. In picture 1 I can see _____ in/at _____. In picture 2 there is a/ there are _____. They might be/ must be _____. It seems that/ It looks as if they have just had/ done/ seen _____.

The photos...

have a lot in common.	don't have much in common.
One similarity is that _____. Another similarity is that the the man/ people in both pictures is/are _____. Both photos were taken outdoors/ in summer / in the city/ _____ They both show outside activities.	The only similarity is that the _____

However, I can spot / there are also some differences between the pictures. As I see it, the key/main difference is that in picture 1... whereas/while in picture 2... Another important difference is that ... The one on the left is/shows/has... In contrast the one on the right...

Finally, the general atmosphere in both pictures is as different as (it) can be.../ as chalk and cheese. In picture 1 it is positive / relaxed / friendly/ peaceful but in picture 2 the people look anxious/worried/ tense / embarrassed/ depressed/ confused/ _____.

Personally, I would prefer to go/ do/listen to _____.

If you ask me, I would definitely choose going/doing/listening _____.

If I had to choose between _____ or _____ I would prefer _____. My reason for saying so is that _____.

The reason I think so is that _____.

Concluding sentence

That's all that I can tell you about these two photos.

That's what has come into my mind/has occurred to me